

Education for all: Heads and tails

Activity sheet 1a, KS3

Match the beginning and end of each sentence below. Then read and discuss Activity sheet 1b: 'Education For All handout'. Use what you have learnt (and do further research if you have time) to create your own 'Heads and tails' activity for other groups to complete.

In 2000, world leaders promised 72 million children around the world
At the current rate of progress
With just five years to go
18 million more teachers are needed by 2015
If world leaders are to keep their promise Poorer countries need to spend that all children would get the chance of a primary education by 2015.

they should give three times more to support education in poorer countries than they have pledged so far.
there will still be 56 million children out of school by 2015.
progress has faltered.
more than 20% of their budgets on education.
are still out of school.
if children are to learn in classes of less than 40.